PLEASE READ:

1. Bearcreek Farms Euchre Tournaments are in the form of "Progressive Euchre".
2. If you have a preference in certain lodging rooms, it is necessary for you to put a range of rooms which would work for your stay. This is located at the bottom of this page. These rooms are filled according to when they are booked.
3. If it is necessary for you to cancel your room, we will only accept the cancellation by email and only from the email address which we have on file. If you call in to cancel your reservation, it will be necessary for you to provide your confirmation number. If you can not provide the confirmation number, then the reservation staff will not be able to cancel the reservation, and the only way to cancel the reservation will be to speak to the General Manager. Due to the increase in postage, we ask that emails be provided. We do not sell this information and it will only be used to send information regarding your reservation and other Bearcreek Farms promotions.
4. If you and your partner will be splitting the payment, it is your responsibility to make sure that we have both credit cards on file, otherwise the primary player will be charged for the full amount.

Note: While we cannot guarantee accommodations involving special requests we will make every effort to meet your needs. A limited number of handicapped access rooms are available. If you require a handicapped room, please mention this. All rooms are on ground level. Room request: _____

It is best to list several choices.

You will automatically be wait-listed for any unavailable dates you may have selected. Occasionally we will have a last minute reservation cancel which makes our team standings at an odd number, if you would be interested in being on call for a last minute opening for any of the 2010 Getaways, we will arrange special pricing for your help. You would be notified by the morning of the Getaway. If interested please list the Getaway that you would like to be on stand by for: _____
